Transfiguration of Our Lord

February 13 & 14, 2010

"Transformed into His Likeness"

"And we, who with unveiled faces all reflect the Lord's glory, are being transformed into His likeness."
2 Corinthians 3:1-4:2

We overuse the word "amazing" in this culture, and we have completely lost the old sense of wonder at the root of the word wonder-ful. But we need words like that to speak of the glory of the Lord and of His Word. The Word, written in stone for Moses, was so wonder-ful that the people could not look at it; it blinded them. They could not look at Moses when he revealed it. It was too fearfully wonderful and awesome. They had to cover their faces, as we cover our eyes on a sunny day in order to see. But a great miracle has happened since then. Since Christ came to earth, in all His glory, since His Spirit comes to us when we turn to him, we can turn our uncovered faces to His light. It is permitted. God in His mercy permits us to see and live. We have been given both permission and protection. Because of Christ, we can see His Word, His law, clearly, without fear. And in our bare faces we can reflect the glory of God himself; we are gradually glorified. And that is amazing!

Then Paul throws in the "therefore." Therefore what? As we minister to each other and to the world, we can be confident, we can be open. We have nothing to hide. "We do not use deception, nor do we distort the word of God."

In this present perverse age, what stronger reminder do we need that the Word is perfect, as it is. It reveals the will and majesty of God, as it is. It is merciful, as it is. It works to glorify believers, as it is. And we are true witnesses, believable, if we preach the Word as it is.

Thank you Lord, for the glory of your Word. May we never diminish it to our neighbors. May we never disregard or disrespect it. May it glow among us in its full glory, that we may one day, fully glorified, enter into an eternity of glory with thee. Amen
—Chris Goble

Scriptures for February 21, 2010

First Lesson: Joel 2:1-2, 12-17
Psalm 51:1-17

Second Lesson: 2 Corinthians 5:20 -6:10
Holy Gospel: Matthew 6:1-6, 16-21

Welcome, Guests!

We are grateful that you have remembered the Sabbath to keep it holy.
We believe the Lord led you here.

We welcome little children as we worship! In respect for others, you may bring your child(ren) to our well equipped, staffed nursery during the service. Our speaker system provides excellent audio of the service in the Narthex and nursery. —Thank you

Here at Faith Community Lutheran...we almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a “blend” of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of “Word & Sacrament.” Therefore, “God’s Word” is held in high esteem as we follow the Scripture readings and the sermon with our Bibles open.

FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our worship, all are invited to “examine themselves” (1 Cor.11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion.

Prayer Concerns Let us know how we can pray for you. Call the office: 303-776-8771.

Confirmation students: How does God’s love transform you to love others?

Do you know someone...who is going through a difficult time? Are you struggling with the loss of a loved one, loneliness, cancer, a lay-off, divorce, spiritual crisis, recuperation, or depression?

Our Stephen Ministers can provide the support you need. Talk with one of our Stephen Leaders: Julie Baas at 303-772-4995 or Janet Streed at 970-785-2332. It’s distinctively Christian. It’s confidential. It’s a great way for us to show you how much we care! Please let us know if you’d like prayers and anointing with oil after worship. This can be arranged on short notice!! Just tell Pastor Dan.
